

Document A

This photograph shows Dorothy Counts attending a previously segregated Harding High School in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Document B

The caption on the photograph reads: "Members of the Black Panther Party are met on the State Capitol steps by State Police Lt. Ernest Holloway, who informed them that they would be allowed to keep their weapons as long as they caused no trouble or did not try to disturb the peace. Earlier several members of the society invaded the Assembly chambers and had their guns confiscated."

Document C

Howard University students protest outside of the National Crime Conference in Washington D.C.

Guiding Questions

Round 1: Document Analysis

Examine the three photographs and complete the chart below.

	What about the image might give you clues about when it was made?	In what decade of the 20 th century do you think this was made? Why?
Document A
Document B
Document C

Round 2: Group Decision

First, each group member should share their answers from Round 1. Next, work together as a group to answer the following question:

Thinking about how the African American Civil Rights Movement unfolded in the 20th century, in what order were these images likely created?

Document _____ was likely created first, because

Document _____ was likely created second, because

Document _____ was likely created last, because

Round 3: Final Vote

Come to a final decision about the order of the documents. You can change your answers from Round 2 if your mind has changed.

First: Document _____

Second: Document _____

Last: Document _____

If your answer is different than it was in Round 2, briefly note why you changed your mind: