The tradition returns as Detroit Public Schools Community District (DPSCD) is hosting its 53rd Annual 'An Evening of Fine Arts' at one of the most iconic theaters in the world - The Fox Theatre. This free event highlights and represents the best of the District's fine and performing arts for the current school year and is presented by 313 Presents, Olympia Development of Michigan, and Comerica Bank, and in partnership with the City of Detroit Office of Arts, Culture & Entrepreneurship (Detroit ACE). The audience will experience performances by the District's top instrumental music ensembles, vocal music ensembles, dance companies, theatre excerpts, and be able to view original student artwork at the onsite gallery.

Ticket Registration: <https://bit.ly/DPSCD53EFA>

There is no cost, but a ticket is required for entry and may be obtained from participating schools or online.

Dress code is business and/or cocktail attire (no denim/jeans)
