2019-2020

Academic Year Scholarships

Through the generosity of private donors, the College of Education is able to award scholarship to hundreds of eligible graduate and undergraduate students each academic year. During the 2018-2019 academic year, over $550,000 was awarded in private scholarships to support COE students.

Scholarships are available to qualified students admitted to the College of Education who have a cumulative minimum GPA of 3.0 for graduate students and 2.5 for undergraduate students.

AcademicWorks is a one stop shop for private scholarships housed within the College of Education and through the Office of Student Financial Aid.

Minimum Requirements:

- College of Education student
- Cumulative minimum GPA of 3.0 for Graduate Students and 2.5 for Undergraduate Students

While not applicable to all scholarships, in order to be considered for those that require demonstrated financial need, applicant must have current FAFSA on file with the University's financial aid office.
