

Cass Technical High School
% 2022 Summer Reading

“We live in a world where we don’t see the ramifications of what we do to others, because we don’t live with them. If we could see one another’s pain and empathize with one another, it would never be worth it to us to commit the crimes in the first place.” -Trevor Noah

Born a Crime: Stories from a South African Childhood by Trevor Noah

HELLO Class of 2022, and WELCOME to your Summer Reading!

Cass Tech’s English Department is so excited to introduce to you this year’s pick for Summer Reading. Please acquire this novel, so that you can actively participate in the reading and vibrant discussions, on Edmodo- While reading Noah’s memoir Born a Crime, you will engage in personal reflections, using particular events, and/or quotes that resonate with you while reading.

Instructions: Select/Target 9 chapters that demonstrate a connection to social, community, and personal issues. In your response, identify the chapter and identify the event or direct quote that resonates with you, lastly compose your response in MLA format.