Why I take pride in serving as Principal at Paul Robeson Malcolm X Academy:

I take pride in serving as Principal at Paul Robeson Malcolm X Academy because it is an opportunity to contribute to the future. As an educator it is my duty to expose children to who they are and greatness inside of them and in doing so they learn and appreciate the beauty of their Blackness. When working with children I realize that I am working with Doctors, Lawyers, Teachers, and Politicians who are unaware of their potential and my job is to expose them to it!

I invite you to join our PRMX community as we expose our students to the beauty and power of culture and community! Join us as we teach children the history of people and events that shape the world they live. Join us we introduce children to education, liberation, truth that will equip them to be change agents in our global society. Join us as we educate children to be “On Time On Task to a Quality Education By Any Means Necessary”
