

Janice L. Rowley Honored with 2022 High School Teacher of Excellence Award from National Council of Teachers of English

Award recognizes exemplary high school classroom teachers.

Champaign, Illinois—The National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE) and Michigan Council of Teachers of English (MCTE) have selected Janice L. Rowley, Renaissance High School and Detroit Public Schools, as a 2022 High School Teacher of Excellence honoree.

Established in 2001 by the NCTE Secondary Section, this award honors and celebrates high school classroom teachers who demonstrate excellent practices and contributions in the classroom.

Rowley's nomination application noted:

"For her, teaching includes the whole person. Making sure that you are not only thriving academically, but mentally and emotionally."

Rowley will be announced as a recipient of the NCTE High School Teacher of Excellence Award on Saturday, November 19, 12:30–2:30 p.m., at the 2022 NCTE Annual Convention Secondary Section Luncheon.

About NCTE

The National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE) is devoted to improving the teaching and learning of English and the language arts at all levels of education. For more than 100 years, NCTE has worked with its members to offer journals, publications, and resources; to further the voice and expertise of educators as advocates for their students at the local and federal levels; and to share lesson ideas, research, and teaching strategies through its Annual Convention and other professional learning events.

###