Superintendent's Message

Team,

As we continue to work toward a vision that all students will have the knowledge, skills and confidence necessary to thrive in our city, our nation and our world, we must build an excellent team of dedicated administrators to serve our students. Developing an effective administrator evaluation system is critical to achieving this vision.

A well-designed, well-implemented, multiple-measures evaluation system allows for this by:

- Ensuring administrators know their strengths and development areas so that they can continuously improve throughout their careers;
- Allowing schools and districts to promote, retain, and support administrators more effectively, including offering more relevant coaching, instructional support and professional development; and
- Improving the transparency and fairness of promotion and renewal decisions.

As you review this manual, you will notice a few key changes to the administrator evaluation for the 2018-2019 school year. We updated the assessment guidance by which we will measure student growth based on our district's new assessment strategy. We also gave greater weight to the progress towards priorities component to reflect the priorities of the district, which administrators have been working so hard to address.

We are currently in the early stages of developing a new evaluation system that meets our goals. Over the course of the 2018-2019 school year, we will continue to work to align evaluation systems for administrators, teachers, and other educators so that we can set and calibrate on a vision for excellence. This will ensure that all evaluation systems support individual growth, allow top employees to pursue advancement within our organization and improve candidate pools for leadership vacancies, as discussed in our Strategic Plan.

This guide is another step toward building a more fair, transparent and accurate system.

Sincerely,

Nikolai P. Vitti, Ed.D.
Superintendent
Detroit Public Schools Community District

What are the components of our administrator evaluation system?

Detroit Public Schools Community District (DPSCD) uses a 100-point, administrator evaluation system that consists of three weighted components: ratings on an evaluation tool, student growth and progress towards priorities.

Evaluation Tool – 61 points
Domain	Weights for Each Domain
A Data-Driven Focus on Student Achievement	11.3% of Evaluation Tool Component (6.9 pts)
Continuous Improvement of Instruction	31.1% of Evaluation Tool Component (19.0 pts)
A Guaranteed and Viable Curriculum	15.1% of Evaluation Tool Component (9.2 pts)
Cooperation and Collaboration	15.1% of Evaluation Tool Component (9.2 pts)
School Climate	27.4% of Evaluation Tool Component (16.7 pts)
Student Growth – 25 points
Progress Toward Priorities – 14 points

Administrators earn an overall summative evaluation score and rating based on the combined number of points they receive out of the 100 possible points. The following cut points are used to determine how the summative evaluation core is translated into an effectiveness rating.

Ineffective	Minimally Effective	Effective	Highly Effective
Less than 36 points	More than or equal to 36 and less than 63 points	More than or equal to 63 and less than 88 points	More than or equal to 88 points

What are the expectations for the Evaluation Tool component?

Administrators in DPSCD are evaluated using the 2013 Marzano School Leader Evaluation Model Rubric. The Framework consists of five Domains, each with a series of elements describing effective principal leadership. DPSCD administrators are evaluated on 17 of these elements. The domains and elements are detailed in Appendix A.

Domain	Element
A Data-Driven Focus on Student Achievement	Elements 1, 3, 5 (11.3%, 6.9 pts)
Continuous Improvement of Instruction	Elements 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 (31.1%, 19.0 pts)
A Guaranteed and Viable Curriculum	Element 3 (15.1%, 9.2 pts)
Cooperation and Collaboration	Element 1, 3, 4 (15.1%, 9.2 pts)
School Climate	Element 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 (27.4%, 16.7 pts)

Throughout the year, each administrator's evaluator will collect evidence to support ratings for each of the elements through school visits and observations. Administrators will have the option to submit artifacts to their evaluator in the final months of the school year. Artifacts may be submitted via Frontline.

The purpose of the artifacts is to supplement data the evaluator has already gathered throughout the school year. Administrators are not required to gather artifacts to support ratings for each element and should not consider the “Sample Evidences” section in the rubric to be a submission checklist. Instead, administrators should consider this list to be a non-exhaustive list of samples that they and their evaluator might consider as evidence. Administrators may opt to submit artifacts that reflect key elements of their practice, whether explicitly listed on the rubric or not, and a single artifact may contain evidence that aligns to multiple elements. Evaluators will coordinate with administrators to identify submission expectations for artifacts, but administrators may submit artifacts via Frontline throughout the year.

End of Year Ratings on Marzano

At the end of the year, evaluators will consider all evidence gathered and assign domain-level ratings based on the scale for each of the rated elements. These ratings will be averaged using the weights described in Figure 1 to determine an administrator’s point score (a maximum of 61) on the Evaluation Tool component.

What are the expectations for the Student Growth component?

As the old adage goes, “if students are not learning, we are not yet teaching,” and it is crucial that we hold one another accountable for making significant academic progress with our students each year.

The State of Michigan requires that 25% of administrator evaluations be based on multiple sources of student growth and assessment data. The State of Michigan also requires that, if available, 50% of this component (12.5% total) be measured using student growth data on state assessments. The remaining portion of the student growth component will include district-wide content assessments.

During the summative evaluation period at the end of the school year, administrators and their evaluators will review data from selected assessments. The District Office will provide student growth component ratings for all district assessments (iReady, Illuminate, and Achieve 3000) and state assessments (M-STEP, PSAT 10, and SAT). Appendix B of this document identifies the specific assessments and scoring rubrics to be used for administrators working in different school configurations.

At the end of the year, District Office will determine what percentage of students have shown growth on all selected assessments and use the rubrics in Appendix B to generate a student growth score. Assessment points will be summed to determine an administrator’s point score (25 points maximum) for the Student Growth component.

What are the expectations for the Progress Toward Priorities component?

The State of Michigan requires that, in addition to the Evaluation Rubric and Student Growth Components, administrators are rated on four additional areas:

- Their skill at using the teacher evaluation system;
- Progress made by the school or school district in meeting the goals set forth in the school’s school improvement plan or the school district’s school improvement plans;
- Pupil attendance; and
- Student, parent and teacher feedback

The Marzano Rubric includes Domain 2, Element 4, which specifically assesses the administrator’s skills at using evaluation systems. The rest of these state requirements are reflected in the Progress Toward Priorities component.

Using the guidelines below to inform their thinking, evaluators and administrators will set school specific targets, which align to the district's improvement plans:

Target Statement	Guidelines
No more than X % of students are chronically absent .	The administrator and evaluator should look at the school's previous year's results provided by the district via DATACOM dashboards and MiSchoolData. Using these results, the administrator and evaluator will determine an ambitious but feasible target for X. In general, the target should match or exceed the district's target decrease in chronic absenteeism for the school year, which is 4.15 percentage points based on historic trends. A school's chronic absenteeism target may need to be more than or less than this figure based on the context of the school. Students are defined as chronically absent if they have been absent for 10% or more days per school year, which equates to 18 days for a full school year. Enrollment and attendance are calculated using data within MISTAR from the first day of school through the third Friday of May (May 17, 2019). In alignment with state policy and MiSchoolData's calculations, only students enrolled for 10 consecutive days are included, and a student is considered absent if they miss more than 50% of their school day.
At least X % Spring-to-Spring enrollment growth .	The administrator and evaluator should look at the school's previous count enrollment results, provided by the district via DATACOM dashboards and based on the state's report of total K-12 enrollment. The administrator and evaluator will determine an ambitious but feasible target for X. The administrator and evaluator should consider the potential for enrollment growth relative to the school's capacity, the school's historic change in enrollment between Fall and Spring counts during previous years, and the district's enrollment targets for the 2018-19 school year. $\frac{(\text{Number of K-12 students enrolled Spring 2019}) - (\text{Number of K-12 students enrolled Spring 2018})}{(\text{Number of K-12 students enrolled Spring 2018})}$
At least X % participation rate in the district's annual Teacher Survey .	The administrator and evaluator will determine an ambitious but feasible target for X . In this case, the target must be greater than or equal to the minimum response rate, 40%, which is required to receive a valid and reliable measure of culture. The target should demonstrate participation growth from the 2017-2018 school year.
At least X % participation rate in the district's annual Student Survey about School (grades 3-12 and adult).	The administrator and evaluator will determine an ambitious but feasible target for X . In this case, the target must be greater than or equal to the minimum response rate, 40%, which is required to receive a valid and reliable survey report.

At least X % participation rate in the district's annual Family Survey .	The administrator and evaluator will determine an ambitious but feasible target for X . In this case, the target must be greater than or equal to the minimum response rate, 15%, which is required to receive a valid and reliable survey report.
At least X % favorable responses on a Teacher Survey domain or question aligned to an essential metric of the District's strategic plan.	From a list of Teacher Survey domains and questions aligned to essential metrics of the District's Strategic Plan (see Appendix C), administrators and evaluators will identify one aligned domain or item. Using the Teacher Survey results from last year, the administrator and evaluator should determine an ambitious but feasible target for X that represents improvement since 2017-2018. The result will be displayed on the Panorama reporting dashboard. If an administrator chooses a domain, teacher responses for all questions in that domain are included.
At least X % favorable responses on a Student Survey domain or question aligned to an essential metric of the District's strategic plan.	From a list of Student Survey domains and questions aligned to an essential metric of the District's Strategic Plan (see Appendix C), administrators and evaluators will identify one aligned domain or item. Using the Student Survey results from last year, the administrator and evaluator should determine an ambitious but feasible target for X that represents improvement since 2017-2018. The result will be displayed on the Panorama reporting dashboard. If an administrator chooses a domain, student responses for all questions in that domain are included.

Administrators will earn 2 points for each of the targets they meet or exceed, and one point for any result that is within ten percent of the target. For example, if a school sets a target that 80% of students will participate in the district's annual Student Survey, the following example illustrates points possible for this component:

Target Comparison	Points Earned
Meet or Exceed Target: More Than or Equal to 80%	2 points
Within 10% of Target: More Than or Equal to 72% and Less Than 80%	1 point
Far Below Target: Less Than 72%	0 points

Although the evaluator and administrator set the targets together, each of the targets will be measured and calculated centrally and provided directly to principals and their evaluators for inclusion in the final evaluation. The District will administer common stakeholder feedback surveys in partnership with schools and use consistent measurements for chronic absenteeism and enrollment growth defined through principal DATACOM and reporting on the strategic plan.

Performance Improvement Plans

If a school administrator has earned a Minimally Effective or Ineffective rating during the previous school year, their evaluator is responsible for creating an improvement plan and holding the administrator responsible for implementing the plan. The improvement plan will recommend professional development opportunities and other actions designed to improve the rating of the school administrator on his or her next annual evaluation.

Working within Frontline

Beginning this year, all documentation for school administrator evaluations will be maintained within Frontline. Additional support for using Frontline, such as information on Uploading/Managing Artifacts, can be found on the district's Evaluations Site.

You may log into Frontline and access your evaluations via the following:

1. Log into the Hub \(hub.detroitk12.org\), and access Frontline My Learning Plan by clicking the Frontline Education button.
2. Choose "Sign in to one of the following sites," select MyLearningPlan PDMS, and click Sign In (.
3. Log in using your district email username and password.

What do I do if I contest a portion of my evaluation?

Administrators who receive a summative rating of Ineffective or Minimally Effective are eligible to appeal their rating. A three-member panel comprised of senior leaders in DPSCD will convene to review all appeals and will make a final decision. Individuals who earn summative scores which make them eligible for appeal will receive more information when 2018-19 evaluation results are posted in Frontline.

What are the key dates for evaluations during the 2018-19 school year?

When?	Who?	What?	Where?
Sept. 4, 2018 – Jan. 25, 2019	Administrators Evaluators	Initial Conference Administrators meet with their evaluators to discuss the structure of the evaluation process and determine measures for Student Growth and Progress Toward Priorities. During the initial conference, evaluators and administrators should also discuss initial performance in each of the domains as well as the kinds of actions and evidence the administrator should strive to take to improve their effectiveness. Evaluators complete the Initial Conference note-taking tool within Frontline, including the selection of Progress Toward Priority targets.	Face-to-Face Meeting or Frontline
Sept. 4, 2018 – May 10, 2019	Administrators Evaluators	Gather Data and Evidence Evaluators gather evidence aligned to the Marzano Domains and Elements through school visits, one-on-one conferences and other interactions with the administrators they supervise.	Various
Apr. 30, 2019 – May 10, 2019	Administrators	Submission of Artifacts Administrators have the option to submit supplemental artifacts to demonstrate effectiveness in the Marzano Domains to supplement data the evaluator has already gathered throughout the school year. Evaluators will coordinate with Administrators to identify submission expectations for artifacts, but administrators are encouraged submit artifacts via Frontline throughout the year.	In Person or Frontline
Apr. 30, 2019 – June 14, 2019	Administrators Evaluators	End of Year Meeting & Summative Rating Using all evidence collected throughout the year, evaluators rate the administrator on the Marzano Rubric. Evaluators and administrators meet to review assessments and student growth, as well as results on the targets set in the Progress Toward Priorities section. Depending on the availability of student growth data on the date of the End of Year Meeting, Administrators and Evaluators may calculate the summative evaluation score when they convene. If a complete set of data is not yet available, evaluators will calculate and communicate the student growth component scores when they submit the Final Summative Evaluation Scores via Frontline.	Face-to-Face Meeting
June 14, 2019	Evaluators	Summative Evaluation Submission Evaluators submit summative evaluation scores via Frontline.	Frontline

Domain I: A Data-Driven Focus on Student Achievement

Element 1: The school leader ensures clear and measurable goals are established and focused on critical needs regarding improving overall student achievement at the school level.

Sample Evidences

- ☐ Written goals are established as a percentage of students who will score at a proficient or higher level on state assessments or benchmark assessments
- ☐ School-wide achievement goals are posted and discussed regularly at faculty and staff gatherings
- ☐ Written goals are established for eliminating the achievement gap for all students
- ☐ Written goals address the most critical and severe achievement deficiencies
- ☐ Written timelines contain specific benchmarks for each goal including individual(s) responsible for the goal
- ☐ Scales are in place to chart student and school progress towards meeting the standards
- ☐ When asked, faculty and staff can explain how goals eliminate differences in achievement for students of differing ethnicities
- ☐ When asked, faculty and staff can explain how goals eliminate differences in achievement for students at different socioeconomic levels, English language learners, and students with disabilities
- ☐ When asked, faculty and staff can describe the school-wide achievement goals
- ☐ When asked, faculty and staff can identify the school's most critical needs goals

Notes:

Scale

The school leader ensures clear, measurable goals with specific timelines focused on critical needs regarding improving student achievement are established at the school level AND regularly monitors that everyone has understanding of the goals.	The school leader ensures adjustments are made or new methods are utilized so that all stakeholders sufficiently understand the goals.

Domain I: A Data-Driven Focus on Student Achievement

Element 3: The school leader ensures that data are analyzed, interpreted, and used to regularly monitor progress toward school achievement goals.

Sample Evidences

- ☐ Reports, graphs, and charts are available for overall student achievement
- ☐ Student achievement is examined from the perspective of value-added results
- ☐ Results from multiple types of assessments are regularly reported and used (e.g. benchmark, common assessments)
- ☐ Reports, graphs, and charts are regularly updated to track growth in student achievement
- ☐ Achievement data for student subgroups within the school are routinely analyzed
- ☐ School leadership teams regularly analyze school growth data
- ☐ Data briefings are conducted at faculty meetings
- ☐ When asked, faculty and staff can describe the different types of reports available to them
- ☐ When asked, faculty and staff can explain how data are used to track growth in student achievement

The school leader ensures that data are analyzed in a variety of ways to provide the most useful information and refines achievement goals or the tracking process as achievement data accrue.

Domain I: A Data-Driven Focus on Student Achievement

Element 5: The school leader ensures that appropriate school-level and classroom-level programs and practices are in place to help all students meet individual achievement goals when data indicate interventions are needed.

Sample Evidences

- ☐ Extended school day, week, or year programs are in place
- ☐ Tutorial programs are in place (during the school day and/or after school)
- ☐ Individual student completion of programs designed to enhance their academic achievement is monitored (i.e. gifted and talented, advanced placement, STEM, etc.)
- ☐ Response to intervention measures are in place
- ☐ Enrichment programs are in place
- ☐ Data are collected and available to monitor student progress and achievement as a result of enrollment in intervention or enrichment programs
- ☐ When asked, teachers can explain how interventions in place help individual students met their goals
- ☐ When asked, student and/or parents can identify interventions in place to meet their goals
- ☐ When asked, students report their school has programs in place to help them meet their achievement goals

The school leader ensures that programs and practices are in place for individual students who are not making adequate progress AND monitors whether interventions are helping students meet their achievement goals.	The school leader continually examines and expands the options for individual students to make adequate progress.

Domain II: Continuous Improvement of Instruction

Element 1: The school leader provides a clear vision as to how instruction should be addressed in the school.

Sample Evidences

- ☐ A written document articulating the school-wide model of instruction is in place
- ☐ The school-wide language of instruction is used regularly by faculty in their professional learning communities, faculty and/or department meetings
- ☐ Professional development opportunities are provided for new teachers regarding the school-wide model of instruction
- ☐ Professional development opportunities are provided for all teachers regarding the school-wide model of instruction
- ☐ New initiatives are prioritized and limited in number to support the instructional model
- ☐ The school-wide language of instruction is used regularly by faculty in their informal conversations
- ☐ When asked, teachers can describe the major components of the school-wide model of instruction
- ☐ When asked, teachers can explain how strategies in the instructional framework promote learning for the school's diverse population

Domain II: Continuous Improvement of Instruction

Element 2: The school leader effectively supports and retains teachers who continually enhance their pedagogical skills through reflection and professional growth plans.

Sample Evidences

- ☐ Individual teachers have written pedagogical growth goals
- ☐ Individual teachers keep track of their progress on their pedagogical growth goals
- ☐ Evaluation results, growth plans, and interventions for struggling teachers are available
- ☐ Meetings are regularly scheduled with teachers regarding their growth goals and tracking of their progress
- ☐ A system is in place to effectively evaluate and revise the school's new teacher induction program
- ☐ The school leader has demonstrated a track record of hiring effective teachers
- ☐ The school leader has a track record of retaining effective teachers
- ☐ When asked, teachers can describe their progress on their pedagogical growth goals
- ☐ When asked, teachers can share documented examples of how reflection has improved their instructional practice

Element 3: The school leader is aware of predominant instructional practices throughout the school.

Sample Evidences

- ☐ Walk-through or other informal observation data are aggregated in such a way as to disclose predominant instructional practices in the school
- ☐ Fortright feedback is provided to teachers regarding their instructional practices
- ☐ Systems are in place to monitor the effect of the predominant instructional practices for all subgroups in the school

Domain II: Continuous Improvement of Instruction

Element 4: The school leader ensures that teachers are provided with clear, ongoing evaluations of their pedagogical strengths and weaknesses that are based on multiple sources of data and are consistent with student achievement data.

Sample Evidences

- ☐ Highly specific scales are in place to provide teachers accurate feedback on their pedagogical strengths and weaknesses
- ☐ Teacher feedback and evaluation data are based on multiple sources of information including, but not limited to: direct observation, teacher self-report, analysis of teacher performance as captured on video, student reports on teacher effectiveness, and peer feedback to teachers
- ☐ Teacher evaluation data are regularly used as the subject of conversation between school leaders and teachers
- ☐ Data shows the school leader provides frequent observations and meaningful feedback to teachers
- ☐ Ongoing data are available to support that teacher evaluations are consistent with student achievement data
- ☐ When asked, teachers can describe their instructional strategies that have the strongest and weakest relationships to student achievement

The school leader continually re-evaluates the professional development program to ensure that it remains job- embedded and focused on instructional growth goals and intervenes with teachers who are not making sufficient progress toward achieving growth goals.

Domain III: A Guaranteed and Viable Curriculum

Element 3: The school leader ensures that all students have the opportunity to learn the critical content of the curriculum.

Sample Evidences

- ☐ Tracking systems are in place that examine each student's access to the essential elements of the curriculum
- ☐ Parents are aware of their child's current access to the essential elements of the curriculum
- ☐ All students have access to advanced placement or other rigorous courses
- ☐ All students have a prescribed program of study that documents access to courses
- ☐ Data are available to show teachers have completed appropriate content area training in their subject area courses
- ☐ Data are available to verify student achievement in critical content and standards
- ☐ When asked, teachers can describe the content strategies that result in the highest student learning for specific courses and topics

Domain IV: Cooperation and Collaboration

Element 1: The school leader ensures that teachers have opportunities to observe and discuss effective teaching.

Sample Evidences

- ☐ Teachers have opportunities to engage in instructional rounds
- ☐ Teachers have opportunities to view and discuss video-based examples of exemplary teaching
- ☐ Teachers have regular times to meet and discuss effective instructional practices (e.g. lesson study, professional learning communities)
- ☐ Teachers have opportunities to interact about effective teaching via technology
- ☐ Instructional practices are regularly discussed at faculty and department meetings
- ☐ Video segments of instructional practices are regularly viewed and discussed at faculty and department meetings
- ☐ Procedures are in place for scheduling teachers to observe and discuss effective instructional practices
- ☐ Data are available to document that teachers who participate in observational rounds improve their pedagogy
- ☐ When asked, teachers report their participation in observing other teachers results in individual self- reflection and pedagogical growth

Domain IV: Cooperation and Collaboration

Element 3: The school leader ensures that teacher teams and collaborative groups regularly interact to address common issues regarding curriculum, assessment, instruction, and the achievement of all students.

Sample Evidences

- ☐ Professional learning communities (PLCs) are in place and meet regularly
- ☐ PLCs have written goals
- ☐ The school leader regularly examines the PLC's progress toward goals
- ☐ Common assessments are created by PLCs
- ☐ Student achievement and growth are analyzed by PLCs
- ☐ Data teams are in place and have written goals
- ☐ The progress of each data team towards reaching its goals is regularly examined
- ☐ To maintain a focus on student achievement, the school leader collects and reviews minutes, notes, and goals from meetings
- ☐ When asked, teachers can explain how being a member of a PLC has helped them grow their pedagogy
- ☐ When asked, teachers can explain how PLC's analyze data to identify appropriate instructional practices

Domain IV: Cooperation and Collaboration

Element 4: The school leader ensures that teachers and staff have formal ways to provide input regarding the optimal functioning of the school and delegates responsibilities appropriately.

Sample Evidences

- ☐ Data collection systems are in place to collect opinion data from teachers and staff regarding the optimal functioning of the school
- ☐ Data are archived and reports regularly generated regarding these data
- ☐ The manner in which data are used is made transparent
- ☐ The school improvement team provides input to the leader regarding the school improvement plan
- ☐ Appropriate faculty and staff are identified and mentored for succession planning and provided appropriate growth opportunities
- ☐ Faculty and staff are assisted with career planning and continuing educational opportunities
- ☐ Teacher leaders and other faculty are empowered to share in the leadership of the school
- ☐ Potential leaders are identified and guided in career development
- ☐ The school leader can cite examples of where teacher input has resulted in effective change at the school
- ☐ The school leader demonstrates ongoing mentoring of teacher leaders
- ☐ When asked, teachers explain formal ways they have to give input regarding optimal functioning of the school
- ☐ When asked, teachers can identify examples of when their input has resulted in effective change at the school

Appendix B: Assessment Guidance & Scoring

According to the State of Michigan's Revised School Code, student growth assessment data should include students' assessment results from the past three years, based on data availability. As state assessments are administered once per year, student performance on M-STEP, PSAT 10, and the SAT, will be calculated by comparing student assessment results to their performance the previous year on M-STEP, PSAT 8/9, and PSAT 10, respectively.

When calculating student growth, available previous years' student growth data will be included and weighted according to the following table. If historic student growth data is unavailable, any other years' weights will be adjusted accordingly.

	Assessment Weighting
Most Recent Year	50%
Year Previous to Most Recent	30%
Two Years Previous to Most Recent	20%

K-4 Administrators

Administrators who supervise elementary schools will be evaluated according to the percentage of students that reach their projected growth targets on the assessments below.

	Gr.	Content	Fewer Than 30% of Students Demonstrate Adequate Growth	More Than or Equal to 30%, but Less Than 50%, of Students Demonstrate Adequate Growth	More Than or Equal to 50%, but Less Than 75%, of Students Demonstrate Adequate Growth	More Than or Equal to 75% of Students Demonstrate Adequate Growth

Special Education, Transition Center, Adult or CTE Center Administrators

Administrators who supervise Exceptional Student Education, Transition Adult, or Career Technical Education Centers will not have district-wide assessment results. Therefore, these administrators and their evaluators should select the teacher-created pre- and post- assessments or portfolios aligned to grade level content standards and/or IEP goals that their teachers are using for their growth component.

Appendix C: Essential Metrics for Progress Toward Priorities

The district's annual stakeholder feedback surveys incorporate domains and survey items that are used to calculate Essential Metrics, which are used to monitor progress towards the district's Strategic Plan. Below are the Essential Metrics that are based on results from the Teacher and Student Surveys.

Result will be displayed on the Panorama reporting dashboard, and previous results are currently available. If you are unable to access the Panorama reporting dashboard, please contact district.surveys@detroitk12.org for support.

Essential Metrics within the Teacher Survey (Five Options)

	Essential Metric	Survey Domain and Item[s] (Select One)
Transformative Culture	The percentage of employees who report feeling engaged and valued at work	[A] My school leadership values my contributions to the team. (District Domain)
	The percentage of staff who would recommend working for the district to a friend	[B] How likely are you to recommend Detroit Public Schools Community District as a place to work? (District Domain)
	The percentage of teachers who report that the instructional culture of their school is strong	[C] Teachers at my school share a common vision of what effective teaching looks like. (Peer Culture)
		[D] The expectations for effective teaching are clearly defined at my school. (Evaluation)
Exceptional Talent	The percentage of employees who agree that the District is committed to helping them develop professionally	[E] My school is committed to improving my instructional practice. (Professional Development)

Essential Metrics within the Student Survey about School (Four Options, By Grade Band)
