

KPMG Future Leaders Program

Empowering and investing in future generations of women leaders

Program Overview:

The KPMG Future Leaders Program is a charitable initiative focused on developing future generations of women leaders. Funded by proceeds from the KPMG Women's PGA Championship and KPMG Women's Leadership Summit, the program affords (22) top female high school seniors the opportunity to enhance their personal growth through college scholarships, a leadership development retreat, mentorship, and an introduction to golf. The program's main purpose is to help these young women continue to build a strong foundation and instill the confidence and leadership ability they need to succeed in college and ultimately in their long-term careers.

The KPMG Future Leaders selected receive:

- A KPMG Future Leaders Scholarship of $10,000 per year for 4 years of college
- A KPMG Leadership Development Retreat and ongoing KPMG support
- A pairing with a mentor for one-year through the KPMG Future Leaders Mentoring Program, the mentor being a female executive that attended the KPMG Women's Leadership Summit, from whom they can seek guidance and support during their beginning years of college

Applicant criteria includes:

- Female high school senior planning to enroll in a 4-year undergraduate program for the upcoming fall semester
- Proven track record of academic excellence and leadership potential
- Minimum 3.5 cumulative GPA
- Interest in a business or STEM academic track
- Active in the community and
- Demonstrates a significant financial need
- Letter of recommendation from a nonprofit/community organization